In 2002 the United Nations designated September 21st each year as the International Day of Peace (IDP), as a day to encourage all peoples and countries to make a commitment to world unity, a global ceasefire and non-violence.

This event is an opportunity for individuals, communities and organizations to witness and participate in a multi-faith commemoration for peace. In the lead up to the IDP, it will enable participants to link with millions of people and many governments, regional and non-government organizations, faith/religious communities and educational institutions engaged in IDP events.

The Program will include:

- ❖ A multimedia, multi-faith reflection on Peace
- ❖ Two presentations on peacemaking
 - A lasting peace in Sri Lanka? The way forward from a Christian perspective
- Rev. Pan Jordan
 - The challenge of peace-building among children and youth: the Together for Humanity experience
- Ronit Baras
- ❖ Musical performances for peace

(Light refreshments will be served afterwards.)
